How to Apply for a Birth or Death Certificate

Qualified applicants may obtain a certified copy of a birth or death record. A qualified applicant is defined as the registrant or an immediate relative or legal representative of the registrant. An immediate family member would be a spouse, parent, grandparent, sibling, or child of the registrant. A legal representative must also present documents showing proof of appointment and specific authorization to obtain the document. It is at the discretion of the County Clerk to determine whether sufficient identification has been provided.
